

METROPOLITAN Meat Market, Hay-st.—Auction Sale This Day, at 12 o'clock, Beef, mutton, &c.

THE NEW ZEALAND LOAN AND MERCANTILE AGENCY COMPANY, Limited, will sell by auction, at the Salesrooms, Circular Quay, TUESDAY, 12th OCTOBER, at 12 o'clock, Bales sheepskins.

TERMS, CASH.

WILKINSON, LAVENDER, and CHAPMAN will sell at the Municipal Yards, Hombach, TUESDAY, August 6, at usual hours, 1700 fat sheep, for Messrs. Garner and Co., New Zealand.

Two fat sheep, for Executors of late John Ross, per rail, and 200 fat lambs, for G. W. Terry, per rail.

CHINAWARE GLASSWARE CROCKERYWARE

To Wholesale and Retail China and Glassware Warehousemen, Country Storekeepers, Dealers, Shoppers, and others.

IMPORTANT UNRESERVED SALE BY AUCTION,
at the ROOMS, 16, FIFTY-STREET,
THIS DAY, THE THURSDAY, AUGUST 4,
AT THREE O'CLOCK.

ON ACCOUNT AND RISK OF THOSE CONCERNED
IN ORDER TO CLOSE ACCOUNTS.
25 PACKAGES CROCKERYWARE and GLASSWARE, Landed at London, Buckingham, consisting of Crates Printed Cups and Saucers, Irish
Crates Lily Granite and Baltimore Cups and Saucers
Crates' Servants' Toilet Sets, 5 pieces, hand and line
Crates' Servants' Toilet Sets, 6 pieces, hand and line
Hopthornes Fancy and Hand-painted Toilet Sets, assorted

Crates Printed Bowls, 6-30
Crates Band and Litter Dining Plates, 5-8
Crates Lily Granite Toilet Sets
Hogheads W. and G. Chinaware, assorted
Cut Noddies and Tumblers, Plates and Spoons, Painted Wines, Moulded Tumblers, Glass Pin Traps, etc., &c.

DAVIS, MARKS, and CO. have received instructions to sell by public auction, at their Rooms, 125 Pitt-street, THIS DAY, THURSDAY, August 6, at 11 o'clock sharp,
THE WHOLE OF THE ABOVE INVENTORY.

ABSOLUTELY WITHOUT RESERVE.
JAPANESE VASES, CHINA VASES
FANCY GLASSWARE AND EARTHENWARE
CUTLERY, PLATEDWARE, STATIONERY
BISCUITWARE, BAGS, PORTMANTEAUX
Purses, HARDWARE, &c., &c.

Also, a large quantity of FIXTURES, PIPING, GLASS CASES
HIGH BOARDS, OFFICE PARTITIONS, &c., &c.

Prior to Removing to Miter's chambers.

ELLIOTT will sell the above on the 2d

ALEXANDER MOORE AND CO. will sell by auction, at their Rooms, 247 Pitt-street,
 Superior HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE and Effects,
 2 pian-fortes, by Bord, Humdl, and Broadwood;
 2 leather dining-room suites, 2 drawing-room sets Cedar, oak, mahogany, and mahogany tables, wash-roomwood, and cedar sideboards, centre table, whitewood, music contribution, benches, &c.

double and single bedsteads and bedding, washbasins, cisterns and pine chests, toilet pans, iron washstands and tubs, crockery, ware, kitchen utensils, safes, tables, stoves, garden seats.

JOHN F. LISTEL will sell by auction at his ROOMS, 274 Pitt-street, THIS DAY, the Furniture and Fiedres pawned with Mr. D. WALSH, of 418 Castlereagh-street.

At 11 o'clock, clothing, boots, blankets, &c.
At 1 o'clock, sundries and jewellery, comprising fid and opera glasses, musical instruments, silver plated ware, books, albums, clocks, gold and silver watches, gold Alberts, chains, neckties and flowers, brooches and earrings, pendants, bracelets, diamonds, agates, and fancy rings,

&c.

FERN
CARRIAGE TREE
LILIES
FERN TOTS

HUNTLEY and TRICKETT will Sell, THIS DAY, at the Mart, 120 Finsbury-street, at 11 o'clock,
A GRAND SELECTION of FERN

CABBAGE TREE
LILIES.
FREE POT.

NO RESERVE.

TERMS CASH.

TO DEALERS AND OTHERS.

HYAM HAINS has received instructions to sell by public auction, THIS DAY, Thursday, at 12 o'clock, on the Premises, 81 Lower George-street, Household Furniture and Effects of an 8-room House

Chairs, Trunks, Bed-board
10 Single and Double Bedsteads and Holding Quantity of Miscellaneous Furniture, Sundries, &c.
No Reserve. Terms cash.

FINAL SALE SALVAGE FROM McLEAN BROS' LATE FIRE IN GEORGE-STREET.

THIS DAY, Thursday, at 11 o'clock, at the Store, 77
Barnes-street, near George-street.

DUNN and WEBB will sell as above, about 400
LOTS, comprising IRONMONGERY, TOOLS,
BRASS FOUNDRY, Painted-ware, Glass-ware, POLY-MERIZED OIL, &c.

THIS DAY, THURSDAY, August 6, 1891, at half-past 11 o'clock.

Important UNRESERVED SALE OF THE STOCKS-TRADE of a Furniture Dealer, on the Premises, No. 6 BAGLION-STREET, Alexandria, consisting of:-

Five large Glass Showcases, with sliding sashes, Count-ertops, Bookcases, Kitchen Tables, Walnut Dining Tables, Bedsteads, Carpets, Stoves, Ironing Boards, Wash
Tub, Sideboards, Carved Screens, Bedchairs, &c.
Wire Mattresses, Chairs, Commodes, Crutis, Sewing Machines, Glassware, Carpenters' Tools, Barbers' Raz-

LHILL has been favoured with instructions from the proprietor to sell the above stock without the slightest reserve.
Auction Sales conducted. Cash same day.
Office, 136 King-street, Newtown.
Superior BUILDING MATERIALS, Corrugated Iron, 344 GEORGE-STREET, near General Post Office, lately occupied by Messrs. W. H. Paling and Co.
THIS DAY, Thursday, at 11 o'clock.
First-class CORRUGATED IRON, all lengths; Leading PLATE-GLASS SHOP FRONT, Street awnings.

PHILLIPS (of 16 Elizabeth-street; will sell by auction, on the Premises, THIS DAY, Thursday, at 11 o'clock, in lots to suit purchasers. Terms, Cash.

WITHOUT ANY RESERVE.

OUTDOOR SALES conducted with dispatch.

TO-MORROW, FRIDAY, AUGUST 7, at 11 o'clock.

IMPORTANT AUCTION SALE.

Under Bill of Sale.
Removed to 9 Wyandott-street for convenience of this.
The CONTENTS of a 10-ROOMED HOUSE, comprising,
Magnificent Piano, by Lapp, on the improved system, of 100 guineas
DRAWING and DINING ROOM SUITES
KIDDERBOARDS, PICTURES, PAINTINGS
CARPETS, OILCLOTH, BEDS, and BED LINEN
WARDROBES, WASHSTANDS, and Dressing TABLES
Kitchen Requisites, &c., &c.

148, next to south of Main, at 11 o'clock, at the street, near bank of N. E. Wales, TO-MORROW, MON-DAY, August 7, at 11 sharp.
The above. Also 30 down quilts, 40 rolls of tapestry carpets, 20 magnificent oil paintings, &c.

TERMS AT SALE.

MOSEMAN'S BAY.

PRELIMINARY NOTICE.

VERY ATTRACTIVE SALE BY PUBLIC AUCTION
at the RESIDENCE OF E. P. RICHARDS, Esq.,

MINSTREL STREET, OFF CLAN ALPINE GARDEN
MORRISON'S BAY,
overlooking SIRIUS COVE,
On TUESDAY, 11th AUGUST, at 11 A.M., of the whole of the
ELEGANT ENGLISH-MADE HOUSEHOLD
FURNITURE AND EFFECTS,
consisting of
VERY OLD CHINA DESERT SET, beautifully painted by hand
Handsome Willow-pattern Thinner Set
VERY ELEGANT ENGRAVED ELECTRO-PLATE

MARBLE AND HANDSOME DINING-ROOM SUITS in American Walnut, suitably carved, upholstered in maroon moiré
MARBLE DINING-ROOM FURNITURE
ELEGANT DRAWING-ROOM FURNITURE and Other Ornaments
FINE COLLECTION of CHOICE PROOF ENGRAVINGS of the best and interesting Subjects
HANDSOME HOUSEWORN PIANO, by KIRKMAN
Trichord, Patent Action
Heavy White Pine Carcase (nearly new), Brussels Carpet
ELEGANT AMERICAN WALNUT and BIRCH BED-ROOM SUITS
Call on or write to
J. W. HARRIS, 211 Broadway, N. Y.

Massive Medallions, Spring Fountains, and A Variety of Good Inside Books
 Kitchen and Laundry Utensils
 2 4-wheeled Perambulators, &c.

NEWTON and LAMB have received instructions from E. P. Richardson, Esq., to sell by auction at Henderson, Mossman's Bay, on TUESDAY, 11th August 11 a.m.

THE WHOLE of his ELEGANT HOUSEHOLD
FURNITURE, and BOREWOOD MAPS &
KIRKMAN.

 CATALOGUES IN COURSE OF PREPARATION

UNREDEMPTO PLEDGES.

BRADLEY AND CO. will sell by auction, on WEDNESDAY, August 12, at 11 o'clock sharp, at N. Herman's Auction Rooms, No. 9 Wyndham-street, Sydney.

The unredeemed PLEDGES passed by G. E. SINCLAIR, of Old King-street, Sydney, as under:-

1861.-

January.-and. III. hoop dia. ring; 2, gold Edward; 42607 gold silver, dia. brooch and a ring; gold oval ring; 7th. sil. h. Walther 186053, sil. sh.
1860, sil. sh. 1860, sil. sh.

[illegible]

bracket; 27th, gold pin, gold a. 2nd, gold-encased ring, sil. h. khruat 0000; 28th, gold-encased sil. o. f. gemma 7640, gold stone bracket, dia. 1000 necklace; 29th, cluster gipsy dia. and mass. ring d. 1 khruat and sil. sil. 43016, dia. and ruby ring, gold and setting; 31st, sil. h. Walther and f. stone 10000, and mass. ring, 32nd, dia. ruby and sapph. ring, d.
and sapph. ring, dia. and sapp. 70 ring
Agust 14th - June 2nd; 30th, crown.

6. 18

[illegible]

public it has tion be Minisquire ge will strength. a good ne new success-remains task as at rail-int of rest and to be ements e ever-public.
my re-railway for his nd in-railway

igious schools from factory schools diocese at few arch of $2, all ruption t com-of the nary receipt total-
 This
 at the shows necessity by the interver-ale—to credit-idle system "
 igious
 A.

ystem, entary every-utting form loaf is is the one in at the harsh eligion where those arable onest shaking cited at for tribute ch to educathat is in-be of ecogart of may be

and rela-
 State does ances h of such ty of if the for its relia-mem-it the them ed on formal jury-criminal claimed induced sembly
 The ad the it pro
 The

y-dis-fast not of several owing runner
 Go-
 and e for runner to his not be in Mr.
 Agua,
 "sting"
 to this ected, nation gives a lations ed to by a rome.
 in dis-the the or of

In
 to do want want Gail for le and M time of Be struc (now new s Let
 of the offici manne

777A

He thought, would be most wholesome, as it would be to the person the value of the right to which he was entitled. In other respects, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

He thought, would be most wholesome, as it would be to the person the value of the right to which he was entitled. In other respects, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

He thought, would be most wholesome, as it would be to the person the value of the right to which he was entitled. In other respects, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

He thought, would be most wholesome, as it would be to the person the value of the right to which he was entitled. In other respects, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

He thought, would be most wholesome, as it would be to the person the value of the right to which he was entitled. In other respects, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

He thought, would be most wholesome, as it would be to the person the value of the right to which he was entitled. In other respects, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

He thought, would be most wholesome, as it would be to the person the value of the right to which he was entitled. In other respects, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

He thought, would be most wholesome, as it would be to the person the value of the right to which he was entitled. In other respects, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

He thought, would be most wholesome, as it would be to the person the value of the right to which he was entitled. In other respects, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

Mr. Dimes, for a wonder, agreed with the majority, and supported the Bill. He thought that the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system. On the whole, the Bill was a vast improvement on the present law, as it provided for the right to the electors, and as a purifier of the electoral system.

CABLEGRAMS.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS.)

THE INDIAN BUDGET.

The Indian Budget shows a surplus of 33 million rupees.

FOREIGNERS IN CHINA.

The British Consul at Peking has authorized the Chinese Government to issue a passport for the purpose of allowing foreigners to visit the interior of China.

THE PRESIDENT'S PINTO.

The new Chilean cruiser Presidente Pinto, which was refitted at Genoa, has arrived at Valparaiso.

FIRE AT A MILITARY DEPOT IN GERMANY.

By a fire at a military depot at Rathenow, in Germany, the entire stock of the Third Army Corps has been destroyed.

FINANCIAL CRISIS IN URUGUAY.

The National Bank of Uruguay, in South America, has been granted a suspension of payment for one month.

THE FRAUD ON THE DEUTSCHE BANK.

It is reported that the clerk who defrauded the Deutsche Bank in Berlin, has escaped detection, and that he is on his way to Australia.

CORRUPTION IN CANADA.

Mr. Mercier, the Premier of Quebec, has been charged with appropriating to the use of the Liberal Party 175,000 dollars belonging to a leading railway company.

MERCANTILE FAILURE IN NEW YORK.

A New York broker and dry goods merchant named Backer has failed for 4,000,000 dollars.

THE QUEEN OF THE BELGIANS.

The state of health of the Queen of the Belgians is reported to be improving.

MARRIAGE IN HIGH LIFE.

Viscount Canteluppe has been married to the Hon. Marjorie Brassey, daughter of Lord Brassey.

A SOUTH AUSTRALIAN MEDICAL SCHOLAR.

The University of Edinburgh has conferred its degree of Doctor of Medicine upon Mr. Thomas Borthwick for his thesis on "The Demography of South Australia."

A HYPNOTIC HOSPITAL.

Mr. Morier, of Adelaide, is visiting the Voisin Hypnotic Hospital at Paris.

THE GORDON BOYS' HOME.

Lord Tennyson is heading a great movement to assist the Gordon Boys' Home.

BEEF SUGAR FOR CANADA.

The Government of Canada has decided to grant a substantial bounty for the cultivation of beet for sugar-making in that country in the next two years.

THE VICTORIAN RIFLEMEN.

Jefferson, Murray, and Martin, of the Victorian team of Mounted Riflemen, have won several prizes in a military tournament at Uxbridge.

ARREST OF A BRIGAND CHIEF.

The arrest of a brigand chief has been accomplished in the neighbourhood of Agrano, a city of Croatia, in Austria. The man is said to have perpetrated 30 murders.

DEATH OF THE EARL OF DARTMOUTH.

The death is announced of the Earl of Dartmouth.

THE IRISH PARTY.

An angry correspondence is proceeding between Mr. Parnell and Mr. Dillon respecting matters connected with the recent announcement by the latter of his repudiation of Mr. Parnell's leadership.

MR. PARNELL AND MR. DILLON.

The efforts made by Mr. John Dillon to bring the schism in the ranks of the Irish party to an end have failed.

HEAVY STORMS IN ENGLAND.

Heavy thunderstorms have been experienced in parts of England for several days past, and reports show that lives have been lost through lightning. The crops also have been injured in these localities by the heavy rainfall.

LOSS OF LIFE.

Heavy thunderstorms have been experienced in parts of England for several days past, and reports show that lives have been lost through lightning. The crops also have been injured in these localities by the heavy rainfall.

THE FLOODS IN VICTORIA.

The Melbourne floods are again in flood. It is reported that the water has risen to a level of 10 feet above the normal level, and that the water is still rising.

THE FLOODS AT WAGGA.

The Melbourne floods are again in flood. It is reported that the water has risen to a level of 10 feet above the normal level, and that the water is still rising.

FRANCE AND RUSSIA.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS.)

DEPARTURE OF THE FRENCH FLEET FROM CRONSTADT.

The French fleet has sailed from Cronstadi for the island of Byrkio, in the Baltic.

VISIT OF THE PRINCE OF NAPLES TO ENGLAND.

The visit to England of Victor Emmanuel, Prince of Naples, and heir to the throne of Italy, is proving highly popular, and the young Prince is receiving a hearty welcome in this country.

THE ITALIANS IN VIRGINIA.

The murders reported to have been perpetrated by Italian navies in West Virginia are now denied.

THE SIBERIAN RAILWAY.

Russia has invited a firm of Canadian railway contractors to tender for a length of 400 miles of the Trans-Siberian railway.

INTERCOLONIAL NEWS.

Recently Sir George Verdon was presented by the officers of the R.N. and A.C. Bank with a farewell gift of £2,000, and he has thereupon presented it to the council of the Working Men's College for the establishment of an annual prize for the best specimen of design and workmanship by a student of the college.

QUEENSLAND.

A mass meeting was held this evening in the Centennial Hall, about 2500 being present, to protest against the elections last introduced into the Bill of the Government.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

A steamer, believed to be the Parmatana, passed Cape Horn at 12.50 this afternoon. The postmaster has been notified that the steamer will arrive at Melbourne on Monday.

TASMANIA.

The case of Cooley, sentenced to death for the murder of Mrs. Ogilvie, was considered by the Executive to-day. No recommendation for a reprieve was forwarded, and the law will probably be allowed to take its course.

NEW ZEALAND.

The top of the Christchurch Cathedral spire was today by Bishop Jones, who conveyed to the top of the spire, 270 ft. high, by means of a chair attached to a rope.

EXTRAORDINARY STREET ACCIDENT IN MELBOURNE.

A serious street accident occurred at the junction of Flinders and Market streets this afternoon. A horse driven in a spring cart became refractory, and breaking away from the control of the driver, dashed into a passing tramcar, and a serious injury was done, though there was a narrow escape. Before the crowd which the incident gathered, the driver of the horse, who was attached to another spring cart without a driver, came bolting down William-street just as the Richmond tram was passing.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE BANK OF VAN DIEMEN'S LAND.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS.)

MANY CASES OF HARSHNESS REPORTED.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT BY THE MANAGER.

APPOINTMENT OF A COMMITTEE TO REALISE THE ASSETS.

The excellent caused by the failure of the Bank of Van Diemen's Land is general. The London branch was in a flourishing condition, and the manager had invested almost all his savings in it. Many cases of grave harshness exist, especially among the shareholders.

THE SIBERIAN RAILWAY.

Russia has invited a firm of Canadian railway contractors to tender for a length of 400 miles of the Trans-Siberian railway.

INTERCOLONIAL NEWS.

Recently Sir George Verdon was presented by the officers of the R.N. and A.C. Bank with a farewell gift of £2,000, and he has thereupon presented it to the council of the Working Men's College for the establishment of an annual prize for the best specimen of design and workmanship by a student of the college.

QUEENSLAND.

A mass meeting was held this evening in the Centennial Hall, about 2500 being present, to protest against the elections last introduced into the Bill of the Government.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

A steamer, believed to be the Parmatana, passed Cape Horn at 12.50 this afternoon. The postmaster has been notified that the steamer will arrive at Melbourne on Monday.

TASMANIA.

The case of Cooley, sentenced to death for the murder of Mrs. Ogilvie, was considered by the Executive to-day. No recommendation for a reprieve was forwarded, and the law will probably be allowed to take its course.

NEW ZEALAND.

The top of the Christchurch Cathedral spire was today by Bishop Jones, who conveyed to the top of the spire, 270 ft. high, by means of a chair attached to a rope.

EXTRAORDINARY STREET ACCIDENT IN MELBOURNE.

A serious street accident occurred at the junction of Flinders and Market streets this afternoon. A horse driven in a spring cart became refractory, and breaking away from the control of the driver, dashed into a passing tramcar, and a serious injury was done, though there was a narrow escape. Before the crowd which the incident gathered, the driver of the horse, who was attached to another spring cart without a driver, came bolting down William-street just as the Richmond tram was passing.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the manager for the Newcastle Harbour Trust.

THE LABOUR MANAGER FOR NEWCASTLE.

The Labour Union for Newcastle, N.S.W., has elected Mr. J. Allen, secretary of the union, to be the

Mr. Milson; vice-commodore, Mr. J. F. Howe; rear-commodore, the Hon. R. H. D. White; treasurer,

Mr. Minnett, secretary, Mr. Cornwell; auditors, Messrs. Waugh and Black; committee, Messrs. Souter, Knox, Morgan, McCabe, J. O. B. & Co.

[illegible][illegible]

AMUSEMENTS.

THE METROPOLITAN LIEDESTAFEL.

In past times some difficulty has been found in giving variety and interest to our Liedertafel concert, but in last night's programme Signor Roberto Hara showed how possible it is to furnish both by drawing upon the great operas. Thus the chief feature Support given by the Metropolitan Liedertafel at the New Masonic Hall last night was the sona for soprano, basso, and male chorus, taken from "La Forza del Destino." There have been occasions when it has been necessary to deprecate the choice for platform performance of excerpts from works primarily intended for the stage, but when effects as dramatic as those afforded last night can be got, the only possible ground of objection is removed. The scenes from Verdi's opera rendered with admirable effect.

[illegible][illegible]

a glorious piece of contrapuntal work to Spindler audiences. The chief contribution of the orchestra was the overture to "I Promised You," very creditably played, though of course one missed the grande cuisine and brass effects which Signor Hazon knows as well how to employ when conducting at the opera with a full band. Miss Celburne tioned, and the singer also gave an excellent rendering of "Orpheus with his Lute," singing with a tender force which gave fresh meaning to the words "in sweet music is such art." Dr. Haskins shared with the strings—whose serene and like purpose accompaniment was very sympathetic—in the honors of an encore for his oboe rendering of the solo part encore in Blumenthal's tuneful and breezy "Boatman's Song" was due to the dainty lightness with which he treated the staccato phrases which give the ballad character; as an encore he added Miss Valerie White's "Absent yet present." Mr. P.J. Barrett's pretty tenor voice was pleasantly heard in Gmar's "The Three Roses," not a ballad of fan-parliament gives it a certain charm when played with the sparkling touch bestowed upon it by Mr. Charles Huenerbach last night. The hall was crowded, and the programme was cordially received.

NINTH ORGAN RECITAL AT THE TOWN HALL.

Saturday half-holiday comes but once a week, and the hard-working folks "on the grid" is intervening days do not always relish being dragged from the armchair and cosy corner even to have their ears satiated with melody; which accounts for the fact

Wednesday or Thursday's gathering. But Mr. Wygod has by this time established responsive sympathy between himself and his Sydney hearers, and, be it audience small or large, his welcome always thrills him, and his numbers are received with the appreciation which is ready to merge into enthusiasm. The night's enthusiasm was perhaps a trifle slower than usual in coming to the front, but then the program was a trifle heavier than usual, in fact it might be characterized as weighty. The city organs have been severely handled by the music-master for leaning too heavily airy tridies, evidently thought it time to change the program on a more solid matter, and the lovers of melody pure and simple sat somewhat easily in their chairs during more than one of the but the French performer was so good that the audience was not bored. The interest in a subtle and whimsical manner, with a slight change of front, and whenever the popular taste was gratified applause broke out and emotions ran high. The programme opened with Bizet's Grand Chœur in F major, and the second number, Auguste Dupont's "Chanson d'une Jeune Fille" (transcribed for organ by Wiegand) was grandly responded to, eliciting an encore, which was requested by Mendelssohn's lovely "Spring" (No. 3). Introduced once more that ever-fresh manner of contention, Bach, whose Preludium and Fugue (No.

happy rippling energy, the same perfect acoustical and phrasing, the same delicate pointing of the bow, which has been a characteristic throughout. If the Bach numbers do not always appeal to the many, they are keenly appreciated by the few, who value the perfection of technique displayed. The operatic festival which formed No. 4 was intensely popular, as usually, are the bright music of "I Believe," which charmed the audience, and a flute ensemble produced a delicate, quaint melody in B flat.

The soft sweet air, like a plaintive mountain strain taken up and echoed down hill and gorge, was repeated in various registers, now and again dying away in the distance; and the listening public settled down with a sigh of delight to its usual interval of five minutes. But after the interval came the beautiful "Swiss Song," a march, by E. Souther, transcribed for organ by Wiegand, and which not only a very serious steady-going matter. Not even a jaunting march this, as the name implies, but a rollicking little group-leap, which enables a man to use his feet to the utmost advantage. But a sturdy step, sturdy, march suggestive of roost bed posture, marches of foggy surroundings, and of an interminable expanse of ploughed land to be got over; one could hear the heavy thud of the heavy feet in the heavy soil, and still the tumbler would wound on interminably, like the soul of the colonial American hero. No. 6 was a refreshing change, the graceful Cavatina from Haley's "La Juive," chromatics, sweet melody accompanied by the sound of rustling wings, all excited the audience further and the imperative encore was responded to with a further and even more poetic adaptation of the original music introducing the "Garden of the Evening" dollymop. The "Garden of the Evening" was also something graceful, a Cantilene for solo pedal, by Mally. The plaintive, muffled, tender melody stole through the rhythmic phrases with the effect of a sad and lonely marching on again! A "Moss Solenne", the tempo, by Kestner, grandly ethereal and impressively interpreted, had a somewhat gloomy tinge, suggesting a march to execution rather than glory, and by the mean an exhilarating finale. The show takes place on Saturday evening.

HAVE YOU tested Rose's Limetta Ginger Cordial? Refreshes the spirit; a fine stomachic. INNES AND CO.,—Lancs.

MISS MARY ANDERSON, our beautiful comely and good enough to say of her Soap: "I have used it for two years and it is the best I ever used. For I find it the very best."

Pease's Soap for toilet and laundry.
No delicate stain of lipstick and skin cream. (LAFB)

AL, the Commercial Review of Gould and Co., dated Port Louis, July 9,

The English market exhibits a firm tone. The New Zealand L. and M. A. Co., Limited, report that they are in receipt of a message dated this instant from the London office, as follows:—“Wheat: Quietness noted. There have been destructive storms. The market is rising. Numerous buyers, but no offer.” The sugar market is unaltered. From ...the direction from the 90th level. At this point the dip of the dywoson on the footwall is 90°. The strike-slip fault is in 90°. From the crownwall. At the north end of this level, the hanging wall which was mentioned in last report to be in the direction of the strike-slip fault, is in the direction of the strike-slip fault, continued in this direction until within 90° to the old drive (mainly put in on the footwall portion of the strike-slip fault). The dip of the dywoson is 90°. To drive from the end of the old one in a north-westward direction, going just in the direction of what is called the old shaft.

— (1), for grant towards the health, strength, and courage ability. Resolved, to do the same. Adopted.

DALEY V. MAKE.
The plaintiff in this action was James

[illegible]

...and for

FOR SPRING WEAR.

TROUSERS, VESTING, COATINGS, and SUITING
in perfectly New and Select Designs.

We have JUST OPENED extensive shipments for the present season, which are now being displayed in our Tailoring Department. Patterns sent post free to all parts of Australia.

DAVID JONES and COMPANY,

<http://nla.gov.au/nla.news-page137>

Acc. CHARLINGHURST To LETT :

LET, a comfortable
ne, bath room, pantry, leat-
SIA 1/2, 104 Pitt-street.
Let, with dwelling, also
low. Front-street, Forme L d, buses pass door. - To old- RESIDENCE C. C. folding doors, hall, gas, city rooms, sundry, convenient, dry yard, &c., and 5 acres of land. - See 28. Bedford Ch. on Village No. 2, to Let,
2 rooms, bath, &c. -
- Conv. Home, 6 rooms, gas and Co., 6 Hunter-street, and COTTAGES desirable, contains particularly to all requirements, and Co. 5 Hunter-street.
and COTTAGES in all rooms £2 to £10 week. CARL ARD and Co.,
45 Elizabeth-street.
on, charming RESIdence; rent to careful tenant

[illegible]

rooms, bath, bookcase, fireplace, and a large closet for hanging coats, hats, and overcoats. The kitchen is well equipped with a refrigerator, sink, and stove. The living room is large and comfortable, with a fireplace and a large window. The bedrooms are also comfortable, with a fireplace and a large window. The bathroom is well equipped with a bathtub, sink, and toilet. The house is in excellent condition and is a great value for the money. It is a must-see for anyone looking for a home in the area.

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

all, folding-down, water 6 Haverly-ter, Boston-ers, &c. To LET. In lighted rooms, with entrance late at back, modern bath & street.

Residence, in park hall, and entrance, and close tram, rent low to Schmidt-er, late from Mr.

and by JONAS FARMER and Morning Herald, Feb. 6, 1891.